

For everyone's respect:

The guests are required to respect the environments, equipment and furnishings found in the guest house/farmhouse. It is forbidden to bring people from outside to the guest house/farmhouse into the rooms or common areas, unless agreed. We also ask you to be respectful of the environment, animals and to minimize waste.

The linen change (which you will find clean at the beginning of your stay) takes place once a week (or in any case at request to an additional change to guests).

Children inside the farm must ALWAYS be accompanied by a responsible adult, the Management declines any responsibility for accidents involving children left unattended.

We invite our guests to adopt behavior that respects the peace and relaxation of other guests, especially during daytime and nighttime rest hours.

The management is not responsible for theft or loss of objects left unattended inside the structure.

For any other needs do not hesitate to ask, we will certainly try to accommodate you. The use of linen outside (towels, blankets, pillows, etc.) is prohibited.
